MOTHER EDDY IS DEAD, FOUNDER OF CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

Pases Away Without Atten-dence of Physician Saturday Night.

Announcement Was Made at Boston Yesterday.

WONDERFUL WOMAN IS GONE.

The Paducah church, Scientist, was formally notified of Mrs. Eddy's death today in a telegram from L. H.
Jones, a teacher and member of the publication committee at Louisville.
The telegram was received by Mr.
Charles Williams, second reader of this church, but no action has been taken. Notices were sent from headquarters at Boston and dispatched from Louisville, which is the main station in Kentucky.

Funeral of Mrs. Eddy.
Boston, Mass., Dec. 5.—The funeral of Mrs. Eddy will be held at 11 o'clock Thursday from Newton's residence. The services will be private.

Boston, Dec. 5.—More than a million followers of Mrs. Mary Baker G.
Eddy, today accepted the news of her death in sorrow, but no Christian Scientist in Boston would admit that the church has suffered a loss to its organization through Mrs.
Eddy's death.

"By Mrs. Eddy's death we lose the counsel of our leader. The church organization is complete as it stands today. It is well understood that no successor to Mrs. Eddy will be named," was the statement of Alfred Barlow, head of the church's publicity department.

Look for Collapse.
Chicago, Dec. 5.—The collapse of Christian Science as a result of the death of its leader was freely predicted here today by leading theologians who declare that schisms will rend the religious structure Mrs.
Eddy built. Jenkins Lloyd Jones, said: "Mrs. Eddy laid hold of a half-truth and overworked it. The vitality of her message meets its supreme test now. The church has great momentum and as large constituency, but I look for a slow decline."

Mrs. Eddy's Death.
Boston, Mass., Dec. 5.—Mrs. Mary Baker Glover Eddy, founder and leader of the Christian Science cult, died Saturday night at her home on Chestnut Hill.

"Natural causes" explains the death, according to Dr. George L.
West, district medical examiner, who was summoned a few hours after Mrs.
Eddy had passed away. Later Dr.
West added to his statement by saying that the more immediate cause was probably pneumonia.

The news of Mrs. Eddy's death was made known simultaneously by Judge Clifford P. Smith, first reader of the church, at the close of the morning services, and by Alfred Barlow of the Christian Science publication committee, in a statement to the press.

According to Mr. Barlow, Mrs.
Eddy passed away at a quarter before 11 o'clock last night.

"She had been indisposed for about nine days," said Mr. Barlow's statement, "but had been up and dressed and as late as Thursday transacted some business with the officials of the Christian Science church. She took her daily afternoon drive until two days before her going."

Burial Will Be Private.
"Saturday night she fell quietly asleep and those around her could at first hardly realize that she had gone. Her thought was clear until the last, and she left no final message."

"No physician was in attendance, but she had the assistance of the students who comprised her household. With her at the time of her departure were Calvin A. Frye, Mrs.

Postpone Installation.
The inclement weather Sunday evening cut down the attendance at all of the Paducah churches. The installation services for the Broadway Methodist church were postponed indefinitely and no services were held at the Kentucky Avenue Presbyterian church.

McCracken County.

A dispatch of the United Press associations at Washington and a special communication from Director of Census Durand, show that Mc-Cracken county made gains during the ten years out of all proportion to the state at large, her population increasing from 25,733 to 35,064, most of which was in Paducah or the contiguous territory. It being estimated that more than 2,000 are living in suburbs to the west of the city limits.
The last previous census showed that 11,000 population lived in the county outside Paducah. Basing estimates on these figures, it is probable that Paducah proper contains something less than 24,000 population, which would have been matterially increased if the general census a year ago had not ignored demands that contiguous territory, which would have been materially increased if the general census a year ago had not ignored demands that contiguous territory, which possessed a practically urban population, be annexed. If Paducah's showing falls below what the people expected, it is the fault of the general census in not acting promptly.

The Purchase Population.

Washington, Dec. 5.—(Special).— The population of Jackson's purchase in Kentucky is 151,743, divided among the counties as follows: McCracken 35,064, Graves 23,529, Ballard 12,690, Carlisle 9,048, Fulton 14,114, Hickman 11,750, Marshall 15,771, Callaway 19,967.
Louisville's population 223,928, Jefferson county included, 262,920, Campbell county, including Newport, 59,629; Fayette county and Lexington 47,475; Kenton county and Covington 70,355; Daviess county and Owensboro, 41,020, Henderson county and city 29,352.

In 1900 the state's population was 2,195,174. Only four states have shown a smaller percentage of increase than Kentucky. They are Iowa, New Hampshire, Missouri and Vermont.

It is believed that Kentucky will lose none of her eleven congressmen, unless congress has decided upon apportioning in excess of 218,000, as the number of inhabitants to be represented by each representative in

Good Fellows Must Do Shopping Early

The Good Fellows of Paducah should not forget to shop early this year. By this act their good work will serve a dual purpose, and they will also be a Good Fellow to the tired clerks of the stores. Avoid the throngs of the last days and you will be happier and in a better mood when you play the role of Santa Claus on Christmas eve. Nobody with a frown on their face can serve as a true agent of the jolly little man, and Christmas shopping during the closing hours is certain to make one tired and maybe a little out of humor.

The number of good Fellows in Paducah is increasing. This is ascertained by the number of promises already made to care for the indigent children on Christmas, but there is the lower house. The present ratio is 194,182.

Two Other States.
(United Press.)
Washington, Dec. 5.—The total population of Kentucky is 2,289,905, an increase of 142,731 or 6.6 per cent.

Mississippi has 1,797,114 an increase of 245,844, or 15.8 per cent.
North Carolina had 2,206,287, an increase of 312,477 or 16.5 per cent.
Mississippi and North Carolina each gain an additional congressman.

How States Grow.

The following table shows the percentage of increase in population for the states thus far officially reported, both for the last and the preceding decade:

METHODIST PASTORS WILL MEET TOMORROW.

A meeting of the pastors of the Methodist churches in the Paducah district will be held at the Broadway Methodist church tomorrow. The meeting will begin at 8:30 o'clock and continue throughout the afternoon. The Rev. S. L. Jewell will preach tomorrow evening. There will be about 15 out-of-town ministers present. They will begin arriving this afternoon and this evening and a full attendance is expected by Presiding Elder Dr. W. J. Meeco.

HEIZE LOSES IN SUPREME COURT

QUASHING OF COUNTS IS RE- VERSED—WILL GO TO TRIAL.

Washington, Dec. 5.—The government today succeeded in bringing Fritz Augustus Heize to trial for alleged misappropriation of funds of the Merchandise National bank when the supreme court reversed the lower court, which had quashed certain counts in indictments against him. A retrial will be necessary.

Good Fellows Must Do Shopping Early

still work for a whole army of Good Fellows. Touched by the spirit of the work in several homes where there will be Christmas trees, several children, who otherwise would not see a Christmas tree, will be invited guests. This is encouraging, but you do not have to give a Christmas tree to be a Good Fellow. Give your name and address to the Philanthropic department of the Woman's club, 214 South Seventh street, or The Evening Sun, with the statement how many children you will be Santa Claus to.
The names and addresses of the children will be sent you, and then, on Christmas eve you can make joy in homes, which will be sad unless you act. Will you enlist at once?

County Teachers' Meeting.

The last meeting of the County Teachers' association will be held at Massac December 17. The program will be completed next week. Owing to the fact that several of the county schools will be out after Christmas it will be the last meeting of the association this term.

SHORT SESSION OF CONGRESS MEETS AT NOON TODAY

Many Important Questions are Before National Legislature.

End of Republican Control of Lower House.

ALL DEPARTMENTS RETRENCH.

Washington, Dec. 5.—A comparatively meagre attendance of members for the opening of congress at noon today of the final session of the Sixty-first congress. Washington society flocked to the congressional galleries, despite the first heavy snow fall of the season. Speaker Cannon was loudly applauded when he appeared. The house adjourned at 12:46, after adopting resolutions, deploring the death of Tirrell, of Massachusetts; Brownlow, of Tennessee; Faulkner, of Pennsylvania, and Gilmore, of Louisiana. The senate was cheerful when Vice President Sherman entered, despite losses in the November election.

The senate adjourned at 12:18 out of respect for four deceased senators: McEnery, of Louisiana; Daniels, of Virginia; Clay, of Georgia, and Dooliver, of Iowa.
Champ Clark walked two miles through the slush in a blinding snow storm to the capitol. He brushed himself off and hurried to the floor, where he received a tremendous ovation.
Speaker Cannon went to the capitol in his electrically heated limousine.

Washington, Dec. 5.—Congress resumed today the labor of saving the country. Three months will be spent in passing a few more of the 36,000 bills introduced in the two preceding sessions. There will be much maneuvering for party advantage and several presidential booms will be advanced, as occasion permits. As the session will mark the loss of control of the house by Republicans, the latter are expected to crowd through bills in which they have special interest and to be energetic in efforts to get liberal appropriations for home projects.

Two new questions that will test the fighting qualities of the legislature concern the establishment of a central bank and the apportionment of the country's population among representatives in congress.

Senator Aldrich, (Rep., R. I.) chairman of the national monetary committee, composed of members and ex-members of congress, is the leader in central bank movement. He holds that the supreme remedy for the cure of the ills of the country's currency system is a central bank, such as is at the head of the financial world in England and in France.
A bank of that kind in the United States would control the issue of currency and have other important powers.

In official circles here the report is persistent that Aldrich will try to drive a bill embodying his idea through the present congress. He is credited with the opinion that, with Republicans in control, the present congress offers a chance, perhaps only a desperate one, for the passage of the bill. With the Democrats holding the next house, the chance would be slight if there be any at all.

Objection to the bill which will be pressed to the limit, will have the backing of scores of senators and representatives. Their contention is that conditions in this country are so different from those in Europe that the English and French schemes would be impracticable.

Apportionment is a matter of politics. It can be used to have an important effect on party strength and is therefore a fit issue for strenuous contention. In some cases it touches state pride and of course, that impels Senators and representatives from those states to reach for their war paint.

During the past 10 years the house has had 391 members, each representing 193,167 people. In the preceding 10 years there were 356 congressmen, each representing 173,901 of the population. If the present number of members should be retained the ratio would be raised

English Election Riots, Fraud Charges and Speeches Continue To Mark Contest For Parliament

Seventy-five Seats Are in Hands of Voters Today—Unionists Make Total Gain of Three.

London, Dec. 5.—Serious riots and wide-spread disorder today marked the third day of the general election.
Seventy-five members of parliament are being elected. Never before has there been such a cry of fraud from both the Liberal and the Conservative ranks. This is because the elections are held under the registration of 18 months ago.

The total returns so far show: Conservatives, 80; Liberals, 53; Irish Nationalists, 14, and Laborites, 8. The Unionists (opposition) gained three.

REVOLVER SHOT PUTS

A BURGLAR TO FLIGHT Before J. S. Lee, a pharmacist at Eleventh and Caldwell streets, could put a burglar to flight last night he was compelled to take a shot at him. Then the burglar was in a big hurry and tore down a small fence in getting away. Mr. Lee closed his store at 10 o'clock last night and had retired when he received a call to fill a prescription at 10:45 o'clock.
Returning to the drug store he turned on the electric light in the rear and at the same time heard a noise at the side door on Caldwell street. Going to investigate he found a white man attempting to force the door open.

Birds Plentiful.

Mr. H. C. McCandless returned after a two days' hunt on the McCandless farm near Smithland. In the two days Mr. McCandless killed eighty birds and fourteen rabbits. He says birds are plentiful up there.

STONE BASES PROTRUDE BEYOND PROPERTY LINE

The city may compel the First National bank to remove two 2-foot stone bases at either side of the entrance to the new stone building.
Third street and Broadway, and also remove the first step, which extends about 18 inches over the property line. Mayor James P. Smith, President Rudy, of the board of public works, Street Inspector Bell, Fins Lack, of the board of public works, and City Engineer Washington met with President Reeves, of the bank today, but no decision was reached.

DELINQUENT TAXPAYERS HAVE FEW DAYS OF GRACE

All delinquent taxpayers will have their only last opportunity to pay state and county taxes before December 15. After that date Sheriff George W. Houser will begin to lay upon and sell personal property of the delinquent taxpayers. Notices are being mailed out to all of the delinquent taxpayers as a last call.
Deputy Sheriff Charles Clark has ascertained that the white property owners in the city owe $3,400 in taxes, while the colored property owners owe $1,340. The penalty of ten per cent is now in effect.

CHILD IMITATES MOTHER—DEAD

FOUR-YEAR-OLD AT MASSAC DRAINS BOTTLE OF POISON.

Watching his mother take twenty drops of tincture of gelsemium to ease her neuralgia shortly before 7 o'clock last night, 4-year-old Charles Waltman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bell Waltman, of Massac, secured the bottle and drank the deadly drug. In a few seconds blindness set in and he cried out for his father.
Dr. D. H. Ray, of Camelia, four miles from Massac, was the nearest physician and he was called. In spite of his efforts the lad died at 7:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Waltman was ill at the time and the drug was innocently set down. Dr. Ray estimated that 35 drops, enough to paralyze his heart, were drunk by the lad. There was no pulse when Dr. Ray reached the home and artificial respiration applied was of no avail.

The funeral was held at the Mas-sac church at 2 o'clock this afternoon. The burial was in the church graveyard.

BLANKET HORSES.

Lycurgus Rice, stock patrolman, has issued an order that all horses and mules left standing on the streets during the cold weather must be protected from exposure by a blanket.

PROWLERS ENTER HOMES WHILE FAMILIES AWAY

Two bold robberies, one in daylight, were committed in residence districts of Paducah Sunday.
Charles T. Graham, of Ninth and Clark streets, and E. W. Whittemore, of 514 North Sixth street, were the victims of evidently the same burglars.

After taking supper away from home last evening Mr. and Mrs.
Graham returned home about 9 p. m. to find the rear doors and the pantry and west bedroom windows thrown open. The interior gave evidences of complete ransacking. Drawers and closets were opened, but valuable jewelry and silverware were left untouched with the exception of three plain gold rings and three pairs of spectacles. Evidently the intruders were after money, but none had been left in the house. Entrance was effected through the bedroom window and a footprint was visible on the floor. Patrolmen Dunaway and Kirk and Police Sergeant Cross were called and conducted a search about the premises. The city's blood-hounds were not available as they were out of the city and were not returned until today.

Whittemore Burglary.

Burglars escaped with more swag from Mr. Whittemore's residence which was entered sometime yesterday afternoon while Mr. and Mrs.
Whittemore was attending the Elks memorial services. When they returned at 7 o'clock they found that a window had been "jimmied." A $65 diamond ring, $1.15 in money, 5 dozen handkerchiefs, six pairs of socks and 2 shirts were missing. This morning the two pocketbooks, which contained the small amount of change, were found thrown under a rose bush in the yard. The police are without clues in both cases.

George Edward Murray.

George Edward Murray, the 2-days-old son of Mr. and Mrs.
Arthur Murray, of 1304 South Seventh street, died Saturday night.
The funeral was held Sunday morning and burial was in Oak Grove cemetery.

SLAYER OF CAIRO POLICEMAN SAFE

PULASKI COUNTY SHERIFF IS PLACED IN JAIL AT MUR- PHYSBORO.

Cairo, Ill., Dec. 5.—A. C. Bank-ston, sheriff of Pulaski county, who shot and killed Sergeant Wilfred V.
French Saturday night at police headquarters, is now safe in the county jail at Murphysboro, where he will be kept until the county authorities bring him back to Cairo.
Night Sergeant Wilfred French was shot and almost instantly killed at 5:15 o'clock Saturday in police headquarters by Sheriff Ab Bank-ston of Pulaski county.

The sheriff, who was under influence of liquor, and who has been arrested frequently in Cairo for making trouble while intoxicated, fired three shots at the officer. The first shot entered French's back and pierced his heart. He fell to the floor dead.

Officer Paul, who was standing near when the trouble occurred, knocked the Pulaski county sheriff down and he was overpowered and hustled away.

As soon as the shooting occurred the news spread over the city and a crowd gathered at headquarters.
The excitement was great, and as a precaution to prevent trouble the police were warned not to permit people to gather on the streets to discuss the affair.

WILL INHERIT PORTION OF BIG LONDON ESTATE

Word was received yesterday by Mrs. Mable Newman, 206 Broadway, that she is heir to one-fourteenth of an estate valued at $800,000. The estate is left by her uncle, James Solomon, who was a wealthy silversmith of London.

LARGE FUNERAL BILLS RECEIVED FOR COUNTY POOR

Fiscal Court Will Make Arrangements For Future Charges.

Routine Business Before the Magistrates.

TURN DOWN THE SANITORIUM.

The McCracken fiscal court today voted to invite bids for pauper coffins and to let the contract at the next meeting in January.

Bills for the pauper dead in Mc-Cracken county for the month of November totaled $216 when presented at the regular monthly session of fiscal court which was held today. The fact that the bill was considered excessive caused considerable discussion, and an agreement as to charges will be made with Coroner Robert L.
Eley. During the month there were 18 inquests which cost the county $108 and the remainder was for the purchase of coffins.

Under the present agreement the coroner receives $6 for each inquest.
When it is necessary for the county to bury the body, the coffin is purchased by the county, and the coroner receives $7 for the burial. In case of children the coroner receives the same burial fee but he supplies the coffin. Sometimes, it is said, when families are able to assist financially in the burial of people, they decline and the county foots the bill.

County Ignores Sanitarium.

A request was made for the county to assist with the maintenance of the anti-tuberculosis sanitarium, and after some discussion the request was deferred until the next meeting. Dr.
S. Z. Holland, Frank Boyd and J. T.
Reddick, composing a committee from the McCracken County Medical society, were present and asked the county to give assistance. It was proposed for the county to give $100 a month for the maintenance of the camp or to pay per capita for every patient from the county. There was some discussion about the legality of contributing the money as well as the ability of the apportionments to stand the extra expense. It was suggested that the request be taken up at the next meeting. The request for the county to purchase $50 worth of Christmas seals was referred.

At noon the magistrates adjourned until 1:30 o'clock. They were the guests of James C. Utterback, county treasurer, with a dinner at the Palmer House.
